

Medellin North Waste Water Treatment Plant Property of EPM Public utility HTA Consortium conformed by HVM - LAHMEYER GWK CONSULT Colombia

Supervision during the construction of the pumping station and ancillary works for the San Rafael Reservoir
Colombia

Detailed designs for the sanitary and storm sewer of El Tintal basin
Colombia

Designs and technical advising for the construction of the Francisco Wiesner Treatment Plant
Colombia

HVM Ingenieros execute projects for the control and use of hydric resources engaging the environmental aspect as one of the fundamental elements. Services provided by HVM include all engineering stages from identification through planning, study, design, construction supervision, and management, as well as the production of detailed and construction designs to collect, conduct, and treat water complying with international quality standards for drinking water systems and wastewater systems disposal.

Services provided by HVM include the following areas:

- Raw water supply and treatment
- Wastewater disposal and treatment
- Pluvial drainage systems